

IECnet press release March 2020

IECnet ranked 26 in the 2020 International Accounting Bulletin (IAB) World Survey

With a fee income of USD121,1 million, IECnet is proud to be ranked 26th as reported in the 2020 International Accounting Bulletin (IAB) World Survey, confirming that IECnet belongs once again to the top 30 networks in the world. IECnet is ranked 26th in Tax & 23rd in advisory, with a 10% increase. IECnet also has an increase growth in the Africa-Middle East region over the last year. “We’re delighted to have retained our position among the top 30 accountancy networks. As member of IFAC’s Forum of Firms and EGIAN, we are continually committed to improving quality and strengthening connections between member firms” IECnet Chairman Tobi Smit commented.

International Accounting Bulletin is the only global magazine covering professional services. Focusing on business issues affecting accounting firms, networks and associations, it is a trusted source for leading accounting news, as well as vital data and analysis provided by its survey features.

International Accounting Bulletin tracks fee income and staff information from accounting networks and associations globally, regionally and across the world’s key economies, with data spanning back more than a decade. IECnet has been part of the IAB world survey since 2010.

For more information, please go to www.iecnet.net

To contact IECnet: info@iecnet.net